FOREWORD

In the pages of this Ti-U Tiger, affectionately called our Memory Book, is set down a final record of our high school days—a line penned now and then. The theme is memories . . . memories of the four years spent at high school . . . memories of friendships formed . . . memories which at the evening time of life will be our solace and comfort. We entered the Tigard Union High School as its first Freshman Class, unknown, untrained; as Seniors we go forth: our minds enlightened, to seek new horizons; our hearts filled with treasured memories. We present this book in the hopes that you, into whose hands it falls, will share with us the pleasant memories of four all-too-short years spent at the Tigard Union High School.

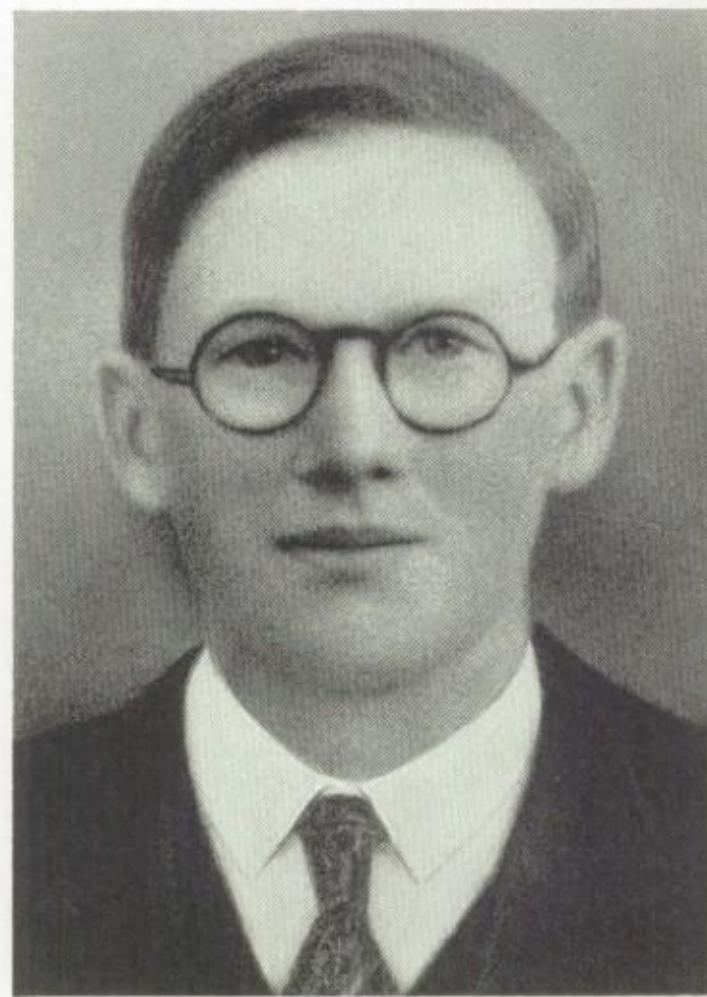

THE STAFF.

DEDICATION

With the splendid example of loyalty and love for Tigard High School . . . and with the realization that groping underclassmen need to realize that perseverance is a jewel . . . can we do better than summon our courage and bolster our wavering spirit to the fore, and "carry on"?

*In grateful recognition of their never-failing spirit . . . and their ability to formulate a calendar (Ti-U Tiger) of the ebbs and flows of each respective class, we, the Senior Class of 1931, dedicate to our predecessors—the Alumni—our Memory Edition of the Ti-U Tiger.*

IN MEMORIAM

Harold Rue

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.*

*But such a tide as, moving, seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

—Tennyson.

THE VISION

Wherever people assemble there is a story to be told—

In order that a house and grounds may be picturesque and interesting in the highest degree, they must suggest the idea of necessity, proving the devotion of the builder. Controlling a view of the western hills, always greeted by Nature's radiant smile, blossom and leaf; here stands our home of reinforced and steel-ribbed concrete, perfected by mechanical science and architectural art, ever mindful of the great democracy either in anticipation or memory. All of the material civilization enjoyed is built upon the use of intelligence. Here takes place the moulding and shaping of natural abilities, to brighten and beautify the life to come. It is the builder's ideal to translate his service to us in terms of the present demand and the future need. Like a sentinel, the building of tender memories stands guard, watching unnumbered days and countless throngs hurry onward to the day of the greater school of his dreams.

Administration and Classes

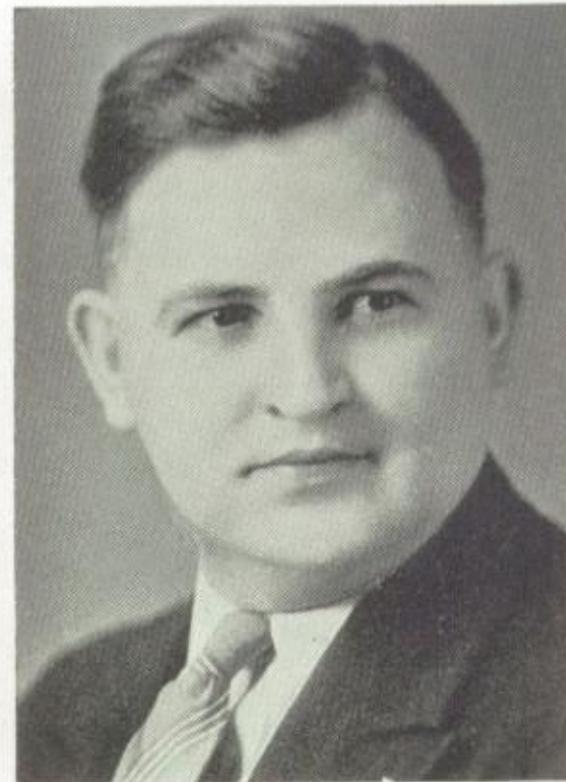

*Back Row—Mrs. Smith, Mr. Leedy, Mr. Myers.
Front Row—Mr. Fluke, Mr. Elsner, Mr. Jones.*

OUR BOARD OF EDUCATION

We remember our Board of Education as rendering a signal service to our community by providing needful equipment for the immediate present needs; and by anticipating for the assurance of the future.

Yours is a tremendous responsibility and you accept and discharge the same in a very efficient manner. Greatest of all, you afford opportunities for splendid development along educational lines. Any enterprise which will add to personal force, which will increase brain power, is worth its price, no matter how much it costs. We realize the unceasing demands that the rising generation makes upon you, but you fail not.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1931 I would write this message in your Memory Book:

Success is a journey, not a destination. Your success will be in proportion to your ambition and ability. To dream dreams is one thing; to realize their fulfillment is something vastly different. It is not so much life that counts as the courage one brings to it. You will remember the past because its hopeful beginning is a spur to greater striving. The future is before you, face it with courage and all will be well.

Sincerely,

Thos. R. Fowler.

OUR SENIORS' TRIBUTE

The members of the Class of 1931 treasure your kind message. You are given a place of honor in our Memory Book as the truest friend of whom any Tigard student can boast. Your kind acts place us under obligation not only to the giver, but also to truth and love. We can but be truer and kinder ourselves. In appreciation of the thoughtful guidance that has been ours through four years, we shall hold cherished memories of you, our genial, beloved Superintendent.

Sincerely,

THE SENIORS.

Second Row—Mrs. Gregg, Mrs. Mullen, Miss Wesch, Miss Maybach.
Front Row—Mr. Linn, Miss Hunt, Miss Weaver, Mr. Stamps.

OUR FACULTY

We sincerely accord a page in our Memory Book
to You, Our Faculty

In full appreciation of loyalty, co-operation, and personal endeavor, by which the door of life is opened wider, through which we gain a clearer vision and an abundance of faith in the process of accepting the wisdom of the past as the safe starting point for the security of the future.

OUR APPRECIATION

We wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for the help that has been given us in publishing our Memory Book.

To Mrs. Mullen and Mr. Linn, who have willingly given their talent and time in helping us make this publication possible, we offer our most sincere thanks.

We acknowledge the co-operation and loyalty of every Class Adviser.

We express our thanks to all students who willingly helped us with subscriptions.

We express appreciation to Miss Maybach and the Art Class for our art work.

To our advertisers, who showed themselves so ready to support our undertaking, we offer our grateful appreciation.

We wish to acknowledge our indebtedness to our printer, Mr. Coffey; our engraver, Hicks-Chatfield; and our printer, Dimm & Sons.

OUR CREED

We believe in the future of education, with a faith born not of words, but of deeds—achievements won by the past and present generations of educators.

We believe that to study and read will give birth to a challenging mind, a mind that can master moods, so that we can triumph over environment when it is unfriendly to our highest good.

We believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. We have opinions and convictions that we dare to stand by.

We believe that America can and will hold true to the best traditions in our national life and that we can exert an influence in our homes and communities which will be our source of strength.

We believe in a Supreme Being.

OUR FAVORITE POEM

Semper Fideles

*O Friendship! Ray of light divine! O thou
That like a moonbeam soft into a room
Doth steal, suffering radiance! O how Thy power doth soothe and calm the soul—A loom
That weaves a golden thread into our life,
Thou brighten'st all; Thou art a God-sent thing!
How could we mortals here so rent with strife,
Exist without thee—boon to serf and king!
God knew this and sent thee; thou like a ray
Of sunshine pure and warm doth meet our beings
In accord with thee. Thus, as a breath of May,
Much laden with rich odors comes and brings
A thrill of life that mak'st all memories gay,
Of worthwhile friendships along our way!*

— M. G. M.

OUR FAVORITE SONG

“Memories”

*Round me at twilight come stealing,
Shadows of days that are gone;
Dreams of old days revealing,
Memories of Love's Golden dawn.*

*Sunlight may teach me forgetting,
Moonlight brings thoughts that are new;
Twilight brings sighs and regretting,
Moonlight means sweet dreams of you.*

Refrain—

*Memories, memories, dreams of things so true,
O'er the Sea of Memory I'm drifting back to you.*

OUR FATE

(THE PETITION)

*Hail oracle! fortunate man,
We are graduates, a small band
Who studied in education's hall,
Then graduated proudly, one and all.
And now that commencement day has flown
Are we using the privileges by diploma won?*

*O oracle, tell this eager band
What fate and fortune are in thy hand?
Reveal to us what the future day
Has stored for us along life's way,
Of joy or sorrow on us to fall.
Tell us, oracle, tell us all.*

(THE ANSWER)

*Hark! I am of prophetic mind
Perhaps some truths I can find
Stay! Gaze on life's crystal ball
It will reveal the fate of all.
Yea! I see you traveling on,
The road of life seems hard and long,
I see paths that turn here and there,
Some lead to heights—some to despair.
Climb, climb, and as on you go,
Opportunities will beckon you.
Tasks that will oft require
Valiant hearts and ambition's fire.
Yes, some will grasp each proffered chance,
And further to the goal advance.
Others, oh 'tis sad to say
Will droop like weeds along the way.
What men call treasure, often dross
An account of nothings, paid with loss.
Life seems a jest of Fate's contriving,
Only secure in everyone's conniving.
Some day the Ideal that you wooed,
Will confront you, fiercely, much pursued.
O graduates, live up to the promises of your youth,
Be loyal, brave, and ever faithful to truth.
Let perseverance ever be your boast.
Never, never mindful of the cost,
Be ever mindful of life's prize;
Through strenuous efforts you will rise.
O listen, while I say again,
Defend your rights, be always men,
Invade the world where success lies
Wrest through toil, the coveted prize.*

— E. B.

OUR LAST WISHES

"The old order changeth, yielding place to new."

We, the Seniors of the Class of '31, being of a benevolent and understanding mind, bequeath to those who follow us the Spirit of the Tigard Union High School, hallowed with memories and enriched by tradition, which we hold most dear.

We hope to hold a wee portion of the thoughts of our wise and just Superintendent, but unselfishly share with every student of the coming years his wisdom and fairness.

We desire to share the patience, understanding nature, and fairness of judgment of our Class Advisers with the Seniors of '32.

We bequeath the vision, sympathy, and the inspiration of our much-beloved faculty to any student body that possesses intellectual curiosity, intelligent co-operation, and earnestness of purpose.

We leave without reservation our scholastic ability, both collectively and individually, to students who merit it through diligent efforts.

We entrust our athletic ability to the coming teams of the years. May our valor and sportsmanship be your strongest armor.

We grant our musical and dramatic ability to the envious ones who watched our brilliant performances.

We have personal belongings, such as genial dispositions, hearty laughs, unusual abilities, and an abundance of good looks that will descend to the unfortunate underclassmen, providing the members of this Senior Class be selected as your "ideal," and the desired wish shall be granted you as it was granted to little Ernest in "The Great Stone Face."

We beg of you to accept our apology for any misunderstanding or rudeness that this class inflicted upon any person during our Senior year.

We ask of you to accept and treasure all fond memories of good times and friendships formed during the last four years.

We entrust our success to you—keep bright its luster so that when we return, it shall be to an institution that represents our worthy past as well as your triumphant future.

We set seal and sign the above requests for the good of education and humanity.

E. A. (Pres.)
Senior Class of '31.

OUR PAST

Far in the past, more real in memory than in fact, was born a town called Tigard.

The story has been handed down to us by fathers and grandfathers that Wilson M. Tigard in 1852 came to the Tualatin Plains to find a location. When he arrived here he found the Richardson Brothers, the Graham Brothers, and John Hicklin settled. They persuaded Mr. Tigard to settle here so that a school could be established. The present Tigard Union High School is located on the tract of land where Tigard's first school was built. The faith of these pioneers has been justified, for the country prospered and was gradually settled.

The forests gave way to farms and after the coming of the railroads and highways, the farms in many cases gave way to suburban tracts. Time passed and a thriving town grew.

OUR PRESENT

Tigard possesses beautiful homes, many business houses, three churches and three schools, and one thousand people to enjoy the same. In addition to having the benefit common to all sections of the Pacific Northwest, of a wonderful climate, it has many special resources of its own that are a guarantee of its future prosperity. A great amount of acreage adjacent to Tigard is adapted to agriculture, horticulture, and dairy. Being so close to a large city, it enjoys all the conveniences of that city, as well as all the suburban delights.

Fraternal societies and various community clubs take care of the social life. A worthy householder will locate in a community where the people are alert and ambitious, where his children may have the advantages of good schools and churches.

OUR FUTURE

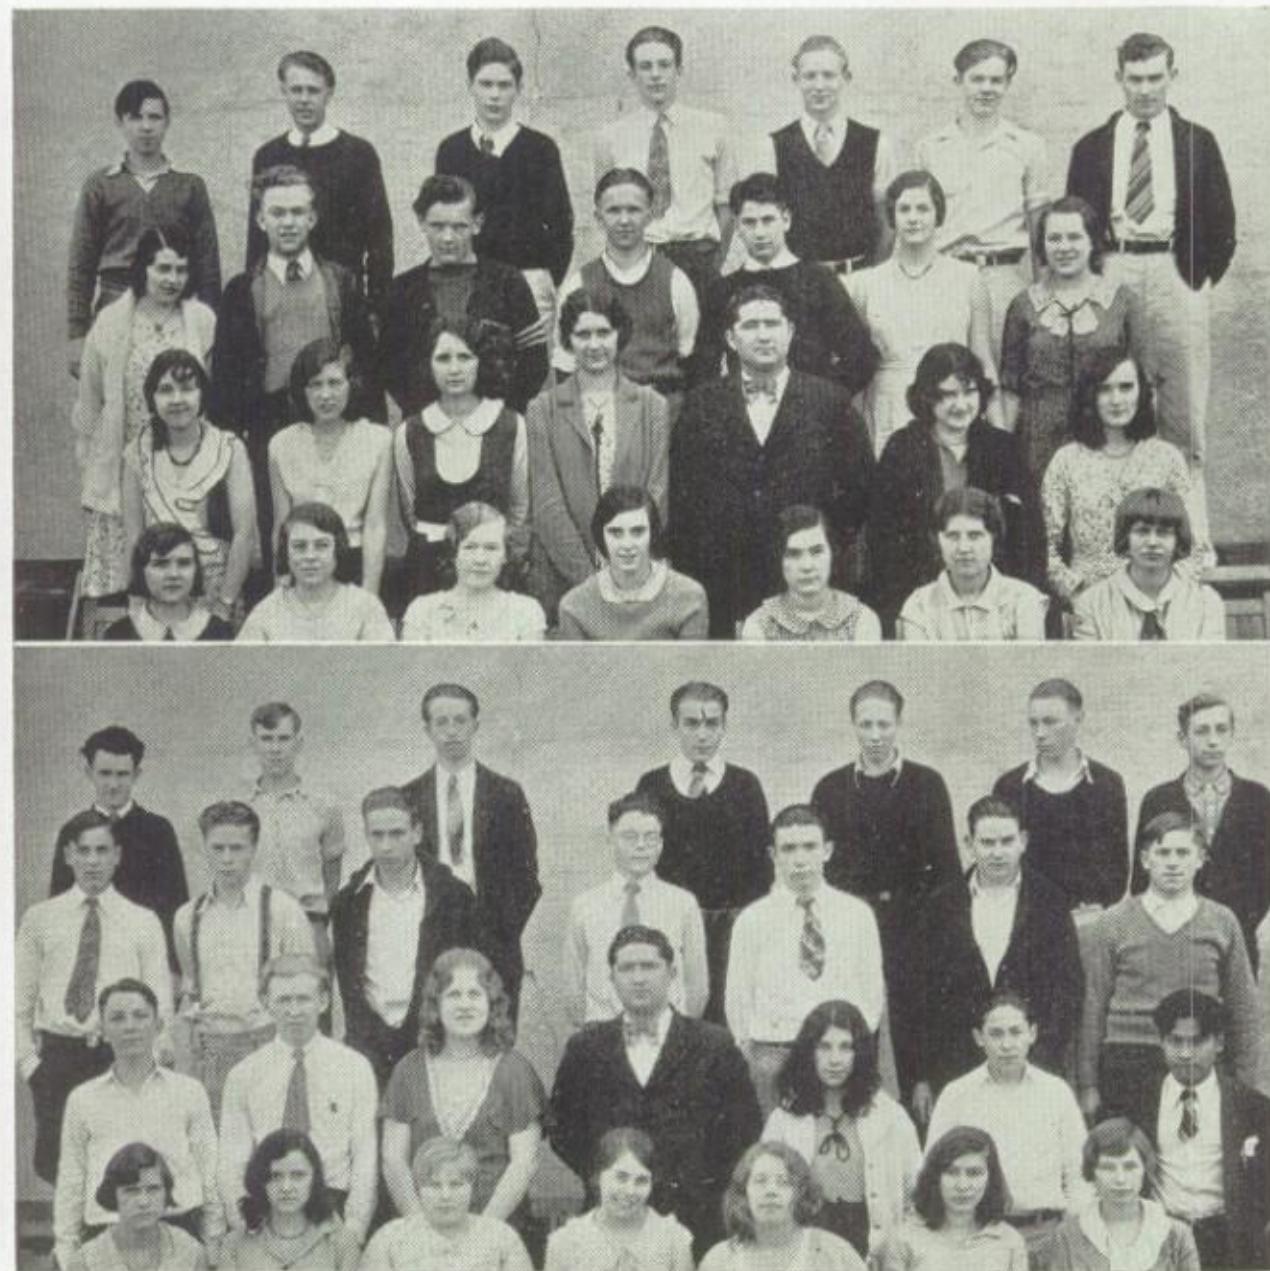

The future is before us, and at our hand lies ready the magic pen of vision. Looking forward to the rise of a new and a greater Tigard—looking backward to note how far down the road of progress we have come—drawing accurately a cross-section of years of transition between the old and the new—it is for us to see that we shall have wrought well, that our earnest efforts shall erect lasting monuments to the glory of the quickly receding past.

Our Home Economics Club, consisting of the girls in the sewing, foods and art classes, was organized for the purpose of uniting the girls in matters of interest to the Home Economics Department, and to promote co-operation among the three classes.

This year's activities, outside of the regular class work, have been rather limited owing to the lack of time. We sent Myrtle Johnston as a delegate to the Oregon State College Exposition and enjoyed an interesting report in each of the classes after her return. We also had two exhibits, one for Open House and one for the Metzger Woman's Club. At these exhibits the art, clothing, and foods classes displayed the work done during the year. The foods class served a formal tea at the exhibit for the Metzger Women's Club, and at the Open House they illustrated the serving of a four-course formal dinner.

How is it possible for a girl to make a more profitable investment of her time than that which will give a firmer grip on the health and economic conditions of the home, increased ability to cope with the domestic problems of everyday life?

Our girls will be home-makers, and to such an end is this course planned.

Our Spanish Club consisting of all the members of the second year Spanish class, was organized for the purpose of promoting a greater interest in the Spanish speaking peoples and to get a more thorough knowledge concerning their customs, literature, and art.

Our meetings, in which every student takes part, are held two Fridays of each month, and have proved very beneficial as well as interesting. A number of biographies of famous Spanish authors were studied, among which was the life of Cervantes from which our club derived its name.

An interesting book dealing with a journey through Spain was studied. This described the most widely-known places of scenic beauty in Spain, the habits of the Spanish people, and their many diversions and pleasures.

It is the persistent trying to make ourselves a little broader, the continual effort to push the horizon of ignorance a little farther away by the studying of a foreign language, that has been the purpose of our club. A true appreciation of the mother tongue cannot take place without an extensive study of its source.

The Spanish Club presented a program before the Student Body.

OUR DRAMATIC CLUB

President	Jerome Fluke
Vice-President	Byron Blankinship
Secretary	Eileen True
Treasurer	Gladys Tooze
Adviser	Florance Hunt

Our Dramatic Club is divided into two sections: the beginning class, which meets on Monday and Wednesday, and the advanced class, which meets on Tuesday and Thursday.

In the beginning class we study the lives of noted actors and actresses, learn stage directions and terms, and the art of makeup.

In the advanced class we stress expression, poise, and interpretation.

The purpose of this club is to create self-expression and to raise funds for Student Body activities. Several plays have been presented by the Dramatic Club this year, "A Little Clodhopper" and "Yimmie Yonson's Yob" being the major presentations. "Frank Glynn's Wife," "The Dearest Thing in Boots," and "Trying Them Out" were three of the minor one-act plays presented before the Student Body. The students are very much interested in dramatics, the membership being twenty-two. To further interest and a higher quality of work, Miss Hunt offered a prize to the boy and girl who did the most outstanding work in the club during the school year. Prizes were awarded to Eleanor Strauss and Philip Gault.

OUR PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB

President	John Crabtree
Vice-President	Gladys Berg
Secretary	Tyrone Gillespie
Treasurer	Doris Sackett
Adviser	Myrtle Mullen

We have forty members enrolled in the beginning and advanced sections of the Public Speaking Club. All types of development are studied. Particular stress is placed on the informal and extemporaneous work.

We all have moments when we get glimpses of the great possibilities within ourselves. Public speaking encourages the oral expression of great forces locked within.

All through life there comes back to us the question of our speech, the medium through which we communicate with each other. We are in perfect accord with Hamlet.

Hamlet:

Speak the speech, I pray you, as given to you trippingly on the tongue. Do not saw the air too much with your hand; you must acquire and beget a temperance that give it smoothness. Be not too tame neither, but let your own discretion be your tutor: suit the action to the word, the word to the action. With this special observance, that you o'erstep not the modesty of Nature.—Shakespeare.

OUR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

President	Lucille Williams
Vice-President	Doris Sackett
Secretary	Bertha Sheppard
Librarian	Grace Kleinpell

Our Girls' Glee Club, consisting of thirty members, meets twice a week, Tuesday and Thursday.

We have made several public appearances this year; namely, Christmas Pageant, Operetta, Carnival, and the Musical Tournament held at Forest Grove.

Besides the Girls' Glee Club, which sang the contest number, "Down in the Dewy Dell," we entered the following numbers in the tournament: Girls' High Voice, "My Love Rode By," Lucille Williams; Girls Low Voice, "Shadows Across My Heart," Gladys Berg; Boy's Low Voice, "The Armorer's Song," Philip Gault; pianoforte number, "Liebestraum," Catherine Collins; and Boys' Contest number, "Moving Along."

Last year we entered the tournament for the first time. Although we did not place, we gained a great amount of valuable experience.

Music! To some people that word means much. No one thing is more potent in the upbuilding of fine manhood and womanhood than music. When we are young we are trained to cultivate the beautiful side of life. As we grow older, the result of the fine knowledge we receive is shown in character, manner, and personality.

Our Commercial Club consisting of all students registered in bookkeeping, shorthand, and typing, has completed a second successful year.

We organized our club in January, 1930, and again in January, 1931. Organization has created a greater interest in commercial work and has also been a means of securing sufficient funds to allow members to participate in commercial contests.

The advanced shorthand class of 1929-30 won a silver loving cup by obtaining first place in the state-wide Radio Shorthand contest given by Oregon State College. To obtain permanent possession of the cup, it must be won three successive times.

Every member of the shorthand class obtained an O. G. A. Certificate, and one member, Mary Conzelmann, received the Certificate of Superior Merit also.

The 1929-1930 typing teams have held the Washington County championship for the past two years.

Miss Wesch, our commercial instructor and adviser, has been with us since the beginning of Tigard High, and with her aid more commercial laurels have been won each successive year.

ATHLETICS

ATHÉ ETHEC

OUR COACH

Tigard Union High School is indeed fortunate in securing the services of such a leader as Coach Stamps for athletic director. A man of sterling qualities, loved by his men, honored by the students and respected by the community. Our coach inspired his teams by his fine example, fair play and courage. Tigard needs such men. We wish to accord him a place of honor in our Memory Book.

Three things go to make up a successful team: the material, the spirit which the plays and the rest of the Student Body manifest, and the coach who works with them. Have you ever seen a team that had no give-up, who could never let go their grip whatever happened, who, every time they failed would come up smiling and with greater determination than ever to win the game? If you have, you have seen the Tigard athletic teams. No matter how superb the physical attainment, success will never rise higher than the confidence. "He can who thinks he can."

OUR FOOTBALL GAMES

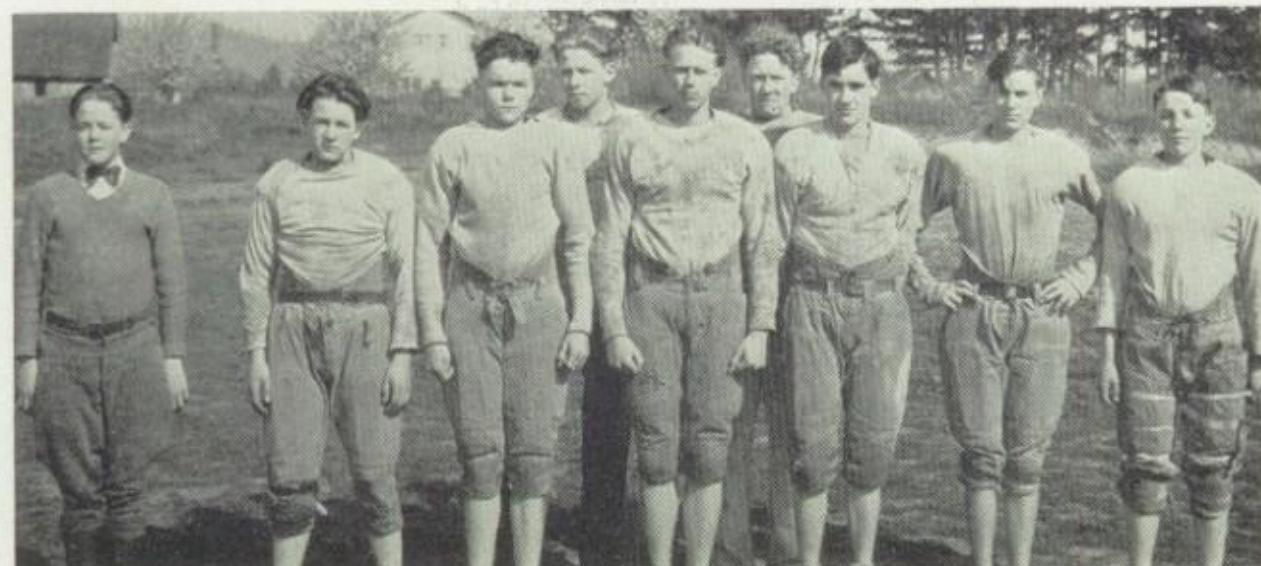

Prospects at the opening of the football season were rather dubious with only five lettermen returning. With the addition of the Smith brothers, Ira and Loyal, stars of North Bend High, the Tiger's hopes for a winning club were bolstered.

The team which defended Tigard in the first encounter of the season was a tremendous improvement over the untrained squad which reported to Coach Stamps early in September. Although Tigard was defeated 7 to 0 by Clatskanie, the fans realized that the "Old Green and White" had a battling team.

A strong Sandy eleven was repelled 18 to 0 in the second game. By repeated line smashes from the middle of the field, Sandy was ripped to pieces. This was an expensive victory though, for Rankin and I. Smith, our two backfield aces, were injured. Rankin, breaking his arm, was unable to aid Tigard the rest of the year.

On October 17 the Emerald Tigers were humiliated by the Gervais eleven. Weakened by the loss of three regulars Tigard was defeated 20 to 13.

The Tigers then met their strongest rival, Beaverton, with the loss of three regulars. The Tigard squad fought like Trojans, holding the heavy Beavers to one touchdown, while the Tigers scored one in the first half. The Tigard team showed a great defense, tackling the heavy Beaverton men low and hard at the line of scrimmage. The second half the Tigard team, hammered by the heavy Beaverton team, gave way beneath the onslaught and Beaverton pushed over with four touchdowns. The game ended 33 to 6.

First Row—R. Ramsby, K. Rogers, E. Bruce, E. Enloe, W. Hehn, J. Fluke, C. Fluke.
Second Row—W. Holtz, F. Bilyeu.

With all the regulars back in the lineup Tigard again was the same smooth running squad that defeated Parkrose 18 to 0. Although the game was won, Tigard again paid for the victory when Loyal Smith, star right end, suffered a badly sprained ankle.

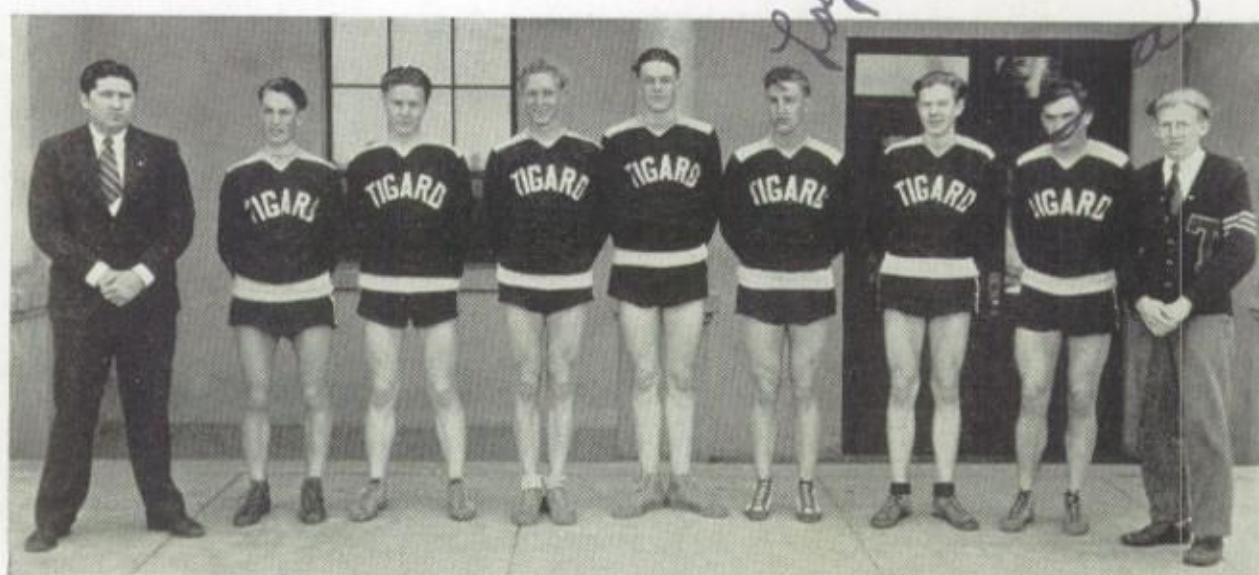

In the annual Armistice Day tussle with Newberg, the Green and White came out far in the lead with an 18 to 0 victory. The dope all pointed to a close contest, but Newberg was evidently too greatly influenced by the thought that peace prevailed. The matter of fact Tigers, however, suffered no such illusions and emerged victors.

The Tigers then journeyed to Forest Grove where they lost a hard-fought contest to the Grovers, 7 to 0.

In the final game of the season Tigard opened an unparalleled passing attack that completely baffled the Estacada eleven. Both teams used this method of scoring.

In praising the merits of the first string we should not forget the hard-fighting, shock-absorbing reserves, as it is from these reserves that our future teams will be made. We feel confident that in the future we shall have some fine teams. We are indebted to these reserves for their pluck in facing the much heavier varsity.

Coach Stamp's first year at Tigard has been very successful and with a large group of lettermen returning next year we are confident that championship teams will be abundant.

OUR BASKETBALL GAMES

Tigard opened the 1931 basketball season with six lettermen returning, Ariss, L. Smith, I. Smith, Jones, A. Crabtree, Litton.

The squad was at first handicapped by the new style of Coach Stamps, who uses the zone defense. After hard practicing the squad mastered this style and held their opponents to small scores. The Tigers scored 304 points to 232 for their opponents, winning ten games, losing five.

With but one game left to win the county championship, the Tigers bowed to the Forest Grove team by a score of 24 to 25. Hillsboro then played Forest Grove and if they had defeated Forest Grove their would have been a three-way tie for the championship, but Hillsboro was defeated by the same score as the Tigers.

With all the team returning, T. U. H. S. is looking for a great season next year for Coach Stamps and his squad.

The Tigers started the season by playing Hillsboro, one of the strongest teams of the county. The Tigard defense was the high spot of the game, for the Hillhi offense was held to but 15 points while Tigard collected 19. Bobby Litton was high point man with 8 points.

The Tigers then drubbed the rival team from Beaverton by the score of 19 to 3, Beaverton scored only one field goal and never penetrated Tigard's stone wall. Ariss was high with 12 points.

C. Redman, C. Kosnik, C. Hicks, J. Fluke, I. Larson

The Tigard squad journeyed to Forest Grove and was turned back by the score of 18 to 13. Tigard led during the game, but in the last two minutes of play the Grovers collected two field goals.

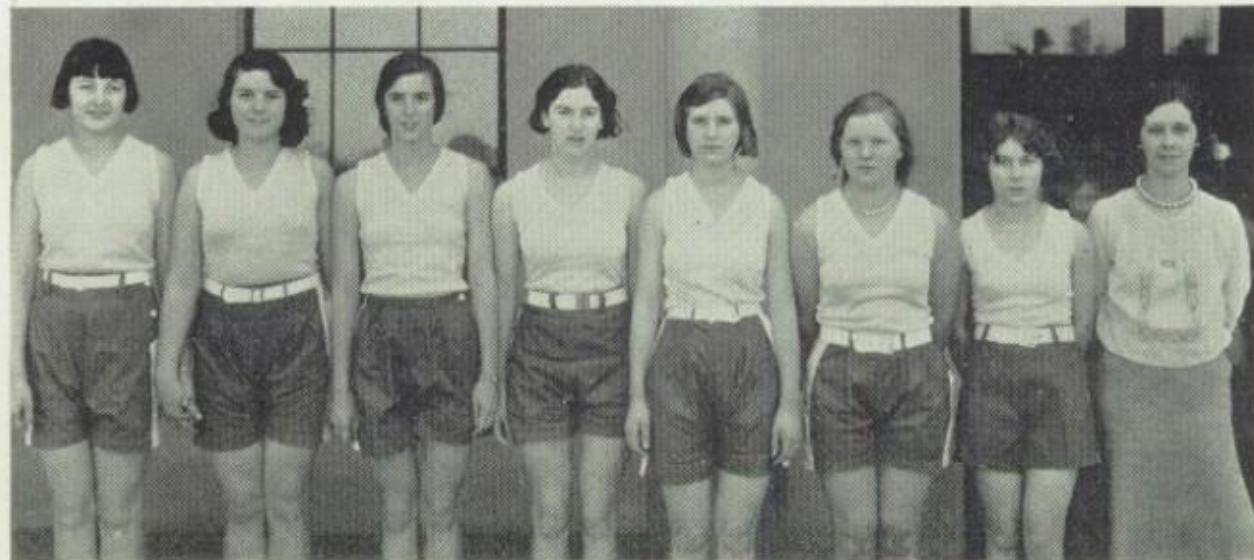

The Emerald Tigers then played Hillhi on the local floor. Hillsboro was out to take the game, but after hard fighting the Tigers emerged victorious by a score of 16 to 13. Ariss was high, collecting 7 points.

Tigard squad journeyed to Beaverton and took another victory from the rival team, 22 to 7. Beaverton again could not penetrate the strong Tigard defense.

Tigard's chance for the championship loomed high with one game left to play, but the Emerald Tigers were turned back on their own floor by the Forest Grove quintet, 24 to 25. This was the big game of the season, neither team forging ahead more than three points. Until the final minutes of play the game was undecided, but the Grovers again dropped a field goal that won the game. Loyal Smith, star guard, was high point man with 14 points to his credit.

Tigard played eight non-conference games, winning two from Newberg by 18 to 12 and 23 to 7 scores. The Tigers took a game from the Estacada five 22 to 19, and then lost a return game 21 to 10. They then won two games from Parkrose, 27 to 19, 36 to 6, but dropped two to the strong Milwaukie team, 26 to 27, 11 to 27.

The Tigard second team had a very successful season, winning four and losing two. Much credit is due to these men who turned out faithfully for practice, enabling the first team to work out their plays.

OUR GIRLS' BASKETBALL GAMES

The girls' basketball season was very successful, the team winning nine of the eleven games played. Such a fine record was the direct result of hard work, an indomitable fighting spirit, and fine co-operation between Miss Hunt, the coach, and her players.

Training was begun with only four returning letterwomen, but a wealth of splendid material was added when a group of Freshmen answered the call. The team annexed its first game from Corbett by a margin of three points. Then swinging into action the battling Tigeresses humbled Dundee 32 to 10.

People now realize that our girls were "out there" to make a showing. Fans who had formerly come to watch only the boys and who had scoffed at the idea of a girls' game being interesting, now came to cheer.

An inspired combination bowled over Banks, winning by 33 markers.

B. Bolton, L. Williams, L. West, G. Potts, F. Boss, C. Carter

Newberg was next in order and probably the most thrilling game of the season. Tigard emerged victorious. This game was a wonderful defensive exhibition, with Newberg securing only 8 points.

Banks, St. Paul, Beaverton, and Dundee all succumbed to our brilliant ladies, and Tigard continued to rule supreme.

West Linn was met on our own floor. The invading girls were much larger, and during the first half Tigard was fought to a standstill. It seemed as if Tigard were to be trampled on by a large score. In the second half, the Tigeresses staged a comeback which brought everyone to his feet, but West Linn's lead was too great and for the first time our fair ladies tasted the bitter fruit, Defeat.

Corbett entertained Tigard royally by winning 22 to 18.

The finishing touches were added to the season by an 8-point victory over our hated rival, Newberg.

Always winning gracefully, never quitting, and losing in a manner which only champions can know, this team will always be remembered as the best. They believed that she who plays the game straight and hard, wins; although she loses. Miss Hunt is to be congratulated upon her success.

Our Senior Class, under the direction of Mrs. Mullen, presented their first play Friday, April 17.

The plot centers around the struggles of Henry Becker, a banker, who tries to explain an incident in Chicago when Montgomery Walsh, trust company magnate, from whom Becker desires a loan, sees Henry with a young woman in a notorious dive, the Black Bell Cafe. Although she is unknown to him, Henry says she is his wife.

When Walsh comes to visit him, Henry forces his friend, Valentine, to help him explain. His wife, Gertrude, and cousin, Ada, know nothing of the affair, and since James Darby and Walter Dow saw Henry at the cafe, a plausible explanation is difficult. A lady chiropractor, Dr. Blair, and Caryl Carroll, looking for her cousin, greatly complicate matters. Jean Darby, Henry's lisping sister, adds her share to the excitement.

The affair is finally explained to everyone's "entire, lasting, permanent, complete and absolute satisfaction."

"The Man in the Moon"

The Cast

Mr. Henry West	Clifford Hampton
Billy West	Richard Cereghino
Courtney Radford	Dan Jones
Clint Yung	Eric Anderson
Ben Wilson	Willard Hehn
Jonah Daniels	John Cimino
Mrs. West	Elenora Girsberger
Margaret West	Jennie Nielson
Minerva West	Gladys Tooze
Miss Chesterfield	Florence Johnston
Mrs. Clint Yung	Myrtle Johnston
Crepe Johnson	Dorothy Lichtenwalter

Our Senior Class, under the direction of Mrs. Mullen, presented their second play May 1. Mr. West is forced to sell his home because of financial troubles. Courtney Radford, the prospective buyer, is to arrive in a Moon car. Margaret West is elated over the prospect of winning a rich husband, thus saving the family fortune. Minerva, the young sister, acts as maid, and a butler is engaged for the occasion. Complications arise when three men arrive in Moon cars, each claiming to be Mr. Radford. The second Mr. Radford, in reality Ben Wilson, a detective, identifies the first Mr. Radford as Clint Yung, imposter and smuggler. Minerva falls in love with the butler who reveals himself as Courtney Radford, to the amazement of all. Margaret succeeds in getting Ben. Meanwhile Billy West and Miss Chesterfield, and Jonah and Crepe, the colored servants, have amusing romances.

OUR GIRLS' LEAGUE

presented

The May Fete

On May 8, 1930, our second May Day Fete was sponsored by the Girls' League of the high school. The royal procession was led by Queen Roycille I; next followed the prime minister, Romer Schmidt; Princesses Mary, Gladys, Jeanne, and Frances; little Bobby Bissett as key bearer; Marjorie Allingham as crown bearer; Betty Koopmans, Jean Ann Mognett, and Maxine Miner as flower girls.

The coronation ceremony was followed by dances from the high school and the various grade schools in the district. After the cafeteria luncheon, a baseball game between Tigard and Carlton was enjoyed, thus ending a happy and successful May Day.

As this went to press, plans for a more elaborate May Day were being formed; the event this year to be sponsored by the entire Student Body. "A Pageant of the Seasons" is to be the theme, with various dances to correspond to each respective season. The leading roles are to be taken by Millicent Russell as Mother Nature, with Lucille Williams, Eileen True, Margaret Pfaffle, and Phoebe Hawthorne, each representing the four seasons—Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter.

The Student Body elected Lois West to be queen. Her attendants from each class are: Seniors, Gladys Berg and Willard Hehn; Juniors, Janet Olson and Jerome Fluke; Sophomores, Lois Jones and Ira Branch; Freshmen, Peggy Otis and James Kilpatrick. The Student Body president, Byron Blankinship, is to be the prime minister.

The customary cafeteria will be held at noon, after which the first high school track meet will be sponsored. With such plans under way, the 1931 May Day will be a gala day for Tigard.

OUR OPERETTA “Jerry of Jericho Road”

The Cast

Geraldine Bank (soprano)	Lucille Williams
John Drayton (baritone)	John Crabtree
Sandy Bank (soprano)	Doris Sackett
Alan O'Day (baritone)	Albert Crabtree
Amos Bank (bass)	Philip Gault
Lettice Bank (contralto)	Catherine Collins
Cornelius Bean (medium)	Eugene Enloe
Uncle Pete (medium)	Tyrone Gillespie
Mimi	Jennie Nielson
Dora	Ellen Sanasac
Hunter	Raymond Martin
Accompanists: Violin, Patsy O'Neil; Piano, Helen O'Neil

Our operetta, “Jerry of Jericho Road,” which was presented by the Glee Club on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 6 and 7, was the finest musical production ever given at Tigard Union High School. Under the direction of Miss Hunt, who is excellent in character delineation, this lively Western romance was presented. The leads showed splendid ability. The chorus and dance choruses were well chosen. The story centered around Alan O’Day, a wealthy Easterner, who desired the hand of Sandy Bank in marriage. Sandy rejected him because her mother favored the match on account of Alan’s money. In an effort to forget Sandy, Alan went West to his ranch, which he converted into a tourist camp.

Geraldine, known as Jerry, feared arrest by the police, whose station she had demolished with her aunt’s automobile, became Alan’s helper to hide her identity. After many misunderstandings and amusing incidents, the lovers were united and all ended happily.

OUR SCRAP BOOK

CARNIVAL (November 21)

The notice of our Carnival is clipped and pasted
In our Scrap Book. Not a moment wasted.
Who can ever forget such riotous fun,
After the Hi Jinks had once begun?
The events sponsored by all the school,
Mirth, joy, hilarious happiness must rule.

DRAMATIC PLAY (October 24)

We give valuable space to this event
In our Scrap Book; for it surely lent
A wonderful bit of entertainment to all.
To see the play, "Little Clodhopper," call
To our dramatic instinct or real acting
Of arts and scenes most intriguing.

GIRLS' LEAGUE BAZAAR (December 4)

We gladly record this nice bazaar
In our Scrap Book. Women folks from afar
Attended and bought towels, pillows and aprons nice,
In fact, picked up bargains in a trice.
Our girls enjoyed the work of domestic arts,
Sewing is essential, as well as apple tarts.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT (December 19)

We are pleased to give prominence to this story
In our Scrap Book; for it portrayed the glory
In our Savior's life, through the Christmas Spirit
Of forgiveness, charity, and love to fit
The present requirements of life, portrayed
By ambitious youth, worthily played.

OPERETTA (March 6-7)

With appreciation do we record "Jerry of Jericho Road"
In our Scrap Book, for it was not at all devoid
Of wonderful singing, acting and dancing,
And a heroine lovely and entrancing.
We all came to witness it from near and far,
And our remembrance of this operetta nothing will mar.

SENIOR PLAY (April 17)

We agreed to post the notice of the Senior Play
In our Scrap Book. It required many a way
"To explain everything" to sister and wife.
Much fun, jealousy, and bitter strife
Was the result of Henry's Chicago trip,
But the play ended nicely, in spite of the slip.

SENIOR PLAY (May 1)

"The Man in the Moon" with pleasure
Was placed in our Scrap Book. Many a treasure
Was promised in the scheming plan
Of the three Radfords to gain West's land.
Also the hands of the daughters were in the race;
As well as the two with the black face.

MAY DAY (May 8)

Our May Day justly deserves a treasured place
In our Scrap Book, because of the grace
Of the dancers, and the maidens so gay,
Who attended the queen, yes the queen of the May.
And the courtly procession which followed so grand,
Making this May Day the best ever planned.

DRAMATIC PLAY (May 8)

We make space for "Yimmy Yonson's Yob"
In our Scrap Book. The poor boy had a big job,
With the help of the rest of the cast,
To prove his identity, which right to the last
Kept everyone guessing about the "Swede."
A splendid cast from ingenue to lead.

COMMENCEMENT (May 22)

The greatest event of all comes last
In our Scrap Book. Our high school days now past,
We each turn to go his own separate way.
And when in the future we think of this day
It brings to our minds memories that never die
Of our happy school days spent in Tigard High.

OUR RETROSPECT

WITH the joy of graduation, with the happy thought of having taken a mighty upward stride in life's journey, comes the sadder thought of parting from our high school friends. For the friendships we have formed among both faculty and students have been for us the very essence of happiness. To laugh with these friends, to talk with these friends, just to be with these friends has worked for us unthought-of good. But, though we now must part, there is a bond which often can bring back each joyful moment we have spent, a bond which clasps all hearts together—The Ti-U Tiger. And thus no joy of ours will ever be lost, but will doubly grow in joy by the building forces of memory.
